Problem 17

In each of Problems 17 through 20, draw a direction field and plot (or sketch) several solutions of the given differential equation. Describe how solutions appear to behave as t increases and how their behavior depends on the initial value y_0 when $t = 0$.

$$y' = ty(3 - y)$$