

Problem 20

In each of Problems 17 through 20, draw a direction field and plot (or sketch) several solutions of the given differential equation. Describe how solutions appear to behave as  $t$  increases and how their behavior depends on the initial value  $y_0$  when  $t = 0$ .

$$y' = t - 1 - y^2$$