

Problem 16

Consider the following modification of the initial value problem in Example 2:

$$y'' - y' + 0.25y = 0, \quad y(0) = 2, \quad y'(0) = b.$$

Find the solution as a function of b , and then determine the critical value of b that separates solutions that grow positively from those that eventually grow negatively.