

Problem 20

Show that linear differential operators with constant coefficients obey the commutative law. That is, show that for any twice-differentiable function  $f$  and any constants  $a$  and  $b$ . The result extends at once to any finite number of factors.

$$(D - a)(D - b)f = (D - b)(D - a)f$$