

Problem 6

A subtangent is a portion of the x -axis that lies directly beneath the segment of a tangent line from the point of contact to the x -axis. Find the curves that pass through the point $(c, 1)$ and whose subtangents all have length c .