

Exercise 34

An integral equation is an equation that contains an unknown function $y(x)$ and an integral that involves $y(x)$. Solve the given integral equation. [Hint: Use an initial condition obtained from the integral equation.]

$$y(x) = 2 + \int_1^x \frac{dt}{ty(t)}, \quad x > 0$$