

Exercise 10

Use $i = (0, 1)$ and $y = (y, 0)$ to verify that $-(iy) = (-i)y$. Thus show that the additive inverse of a complex number $z = x + iy$ can be written $-z = -x - iy$ without ambiguity.